INDIVIDUAL REFLECTION

In the video you heard the comments about the experiences of several students. Of the issues raised, choose one that you think is similar to an issue in your community. Describe how you think the two issues relate to each other. Why do you think this issue is important?

Critique popular media, you are familiar with, regarding how People of Color are portrayed.

Using credible sources, conduct research regarding a problem involving racial inequity in your community. Propose a solution to the problem you identify and provide justification for why your solution would be effective.
